

A Collaboration of University of Alabama-Birmingham, University of the West Indies-Mona,
The Jamaican Ministry of Health & The UAB Sparkman Center for Global Health

GHS 620: Infectious Disease Surveillance and Control

July 22—August 1, 2012

University of West Indies—Mona Campus
Kingston, Jamaica

ATTENTION:

Public Health Students: Global Health, Epidemiology, Health Behavior, Environmental Health
Medical & Nursing Students
Advanced Undergraduate Students

GHS 620: Infectious Disease Surveillance and Control is appropriate for those students who would like to experience a field-based studies course which emphasizes the integration and application of classroom, laboratory and field experiences to foster problem-solving skills for infectious disease ecology, surveillance and control, using field-based projects and teamwork, site visits for an in-depth look at some of the major public health issues, briefings & lectures by experts in the field, and cultural immersion with fellow Jamaican health professional students.

HOUSING, TRANSPORTATION, & FEES COSTS*,

$2,100 if enrolled and paid deposit by April 1, 2012
$2,200 if enrolled and paid deposit by May 1, 2012
$2,300 if enrolled after May 1, 2012

*Excludes UAB Tuition and Fees

For more information,

please contact:

Heather White, DrPH
Program Director
hwhite@uab.edu
(205) 975-7613

For additional information and to access the application, please visit: <http://www.soph.uab.edu/sparkman/courses/jamaica>